ARTICLE I

DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES OF BOARD OF ADVISORS

A. To review the program schedule submitted by the Station Management Committee, with a particular view toward establishing and maintaining quality FM programming, consistent with the purposes of this station.

B. To interview the candidates for Station Managers elected by the membership and to ratify and certify the results of the annual elections of Station Managers.

C. To ratify and certify the results of the annual election, or appointment (as provided in Article IV, Section A, below), of the General Manager.

D. To examine the station budget and submit the final budget request to the University. Special requests for additions to or eliminations from the station budget may be considered at any meeting, and if approved, submitted to the University.

ARTICLE II

RESPONSIBILITIES OF THE GENERAL MANAGER TO BOARD OF ADVISORS

A. To make general policy recommendations.

B. To report on the financial status of the station at the mid-winter and final meetings of each year.

C. To deliver at each meeting a report on the FM program schedule, with particular emphasis on continuity of programming and any contemplated major modifications.

ARTICLE III

RESPONSIBILITIES OF STATION MANAGERS TO BOARD OF ADVISORS

A. To deliver at each mid-winter meeting a statement of membership and general administrative report.

B. To present to the Board of Advisors at each mid-winter meeting for its approval the proposed Stations Managers for the following year.

C. To report on the election of the General Manager.

ARTICLE IV

STATION MANAGEMENT COMMITTEE

A. The Station Management Committee shall consist of the General Manager, each Station Manager, and the next three ranking officers at each campus, who shall be two Assistant Station Managers and a Chief Engineer. It shall be the responsibility of this Committee each year to elect a General Manager in May. The General Manager shall be elected from the four specified officers at each campus, and the position previously occupied by the General Manager shall be re-filled. The General Manager may not simultaneously serve as an officer at either campus, nor may he vote for his successor. In the event that the Station Management Committee is unable to agree on the election of a General Manager, the Chairman of the Board of Advisors and the faculty advisors shall appoint the General Manager from the four specified officers at each campus.

B. The Committee shall meet at least twice during each academic term at such time and place as the General Manager shall designate and at such other times and places as may be designated by the General Manager.

C. It shall be the responsibility of the Committee to prepare all budgetary requests and program schedules.

ARTICLE V

GENERAL MEMBERSHIP

A. Membership in WNYU-FM shall be open to any person registered as a student at New York University. Voting rights shall be granted to any such person who shall have been a member for at least one semester and who shall have paid in full such dues, if any, as are set by the Station Management Committee.

B. Membership in WNYU-FM shall be considered a general membership; however, for purposes of convenience, members shall be divided into two groups, which shall be designated as the "Washington Square Group" and the "Heights Group." Any member may affiliate with either group, but not with both.

C. In February of each year, the Station Management Committee will submit its nominations for the position of Station Manager to separate group meetings called for the purposes of receiving such nominations and electing Station Managers. The membership of each group may submit nominations for the position of Station Manager by petition bearing the signatures of at least ten voting members. A majority of the votes cast by the voting members of each group present at the meeting shall be required for proposal of a nominee for the position of Station Manager to the Board of Advisors.

D. A quorum of each group shall consist of fifteen voting members of that group.

E. A member may register a formal complaint by sending a letter to the Chairman of the Board of Advisors and a copy to the General Manager.

F. Station Managers shall appoint all subordinate officers and department heads.

G. A Station Manager and all other appointed officers and department heads may be removed by the affirmative vote of at least three-fourths of the entire voting membership of each group voting separately as a group, and the approval of such removal must given by appropriate resolution of the Board of Advisors.

A Station Manager may also be removed by the affirmative vote of at least three-fourths of the entire membership of the Board of Advisors.

H. The General Manager shall be charged with the ultimate responsibility for the routine operation of the station, including budgetary negotiation and supervision. He shall also serve as the principal liaison officer in all matters relating to the University.

I. The General Manager may be removed by the affirmative vote of at least three-fourths of the entire membership of the Board of Advisors.

ARTICLE VI

GENERAL MEMBERSHIP MEETINGS

A. The annual meeting of the general membership shall be held by groups during the month of February in each year at the date, time and place specified by the Station Management Committee.

B. Special meetings of the general membership may be called for any purpose or purposes at any time by resolution of the Board of Advisors or of the Station Management Committee. At any time, upon the written request of at least ten voting members submitted to the station requesting a call of a special meeting, the Station Management Committee shall fix a date, time and place for such meeting not less than ten nor more than sixty days after such written request. All requests for special meetings shall state the purpose or purposes of the proposed meeting, and the business transacted at all special meetings shall be confined to the purpose or purposes stated in the call thereof and matters germaine thereto.

C. Each group shall consist of at least fifteen members of that group to constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE VII

FACULTY ADVISORS

A. Two faculty advisors shall be appointed annually by the Chairman of the Board of Advisors upon recommendation of the General Manager.

B. Faculty Advisors shall advise the student managers of the station and aid in the preparation of the program schedules and budget.
